

School Nutrition Association of Michigan's Leadership Academy

Summer 2017 — Preparing the next generation of outstanding leaders

Do you lead others or want to lead others in the future? If so, the School Nutrition Association of Michigan's (SNAM) Leadership Academy is designed for you. It is a comprehensive leadership development experience to prepare individuals to effectively lead operations in their districts. In addition to growing leadership skills, you'll also gain better understanding of topics such as financial accountability, nutrition, customer service, dealing with conflict and difficult employees, and much more. It is designed to improve the technical skills, but also help individuals grasp leadership concepts and prepare for making the leap from co-worker to leader!
